DATE PREPARED 26 April 1951 Solviet troops arrived 25X1 engralow (1:53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prine nevers way artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow to forthcoming weeks. (1) 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 2 2 3 4 1 3 4 4 1 4 5 5 5 6 6 7 5 6 7 6 7 7 6 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 8 7 7 9 7 7 9 7 7 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	DATE PREPARED 26 April 1951 ANTE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED 1. During the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (2:55/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Ector vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks and trucks and trucks artillery battalion from Jermburg was at Altengrabow. 250 260 270 280 281 282 284 285 297 285 298 298 209 200 201 201 201 201 202 203 204 205 207 208 208 209 208 208 209 208 209 209	DATE PREPARED 25X1 25X		CLASSIFICATION COLOR APPROVED TO THE CLASSIFICATION COLOR APPROVED TO THE CLASSIFICATION COLOR APPROVED TO THE
DATE PREPARED 26 April 1051 DATE PREPARED 26 April 1051 25X1 the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived rengration (21 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers was at altengrabow. Job 2000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow to the forthcoming weeks. (1) Altery unit with vehicles left trains and a target consists and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target consists and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target consists and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target consists and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target consists and the North Camp two artillery bettalions and a target consists and the North Camp two artillery bettalions and a target consists and the North Camp two artillery bettalions and a target consists and the North Camp two artillery pieces were observed in the rabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the remsection of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA suns.	DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT 1. During the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (1:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Ecotor vehicles/ icotor vehicles/ of a light artillery unit; prime nevers/ of heavy artillery units; trucks/ and trucks/ and trucks/ and trucks/ and trucks/ of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalian from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. (0,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles/ 3. Cn 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AM battalions, and the North Camp two artillery bettalions and a tarjet construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AM guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT 1. During the period from 23 Harch to 7 April 1951, Seviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (153/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Ector vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prine nevers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks artillery battalian from Bernburg of artillery units, In addition, an artillery battalian from Bernburg was at Altengrabow (25) An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow duartered five artillery or AM battalions, and the North Camp to Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AM battalions, and the North Camp to artillery battalions and a target construction unit left Altengrabow duartered five artillery or AM battalions, and the North Camp to artillery piaces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 50 medium and heavy AM guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 1. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield gines I April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered opaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (1) 2. At the ond of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Noeckern	COUNTRY	7
DATE PREPARED 26 April 1951 the poriod from 23 Harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived sengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers ary artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) 25) 26) 27) 28) 29) 21) 25) 26) 27) 28) 29) 29) 21) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 21) 22) 23) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 29) 20) 20) 20) 21) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 28) 29) 29)	DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINET REFERENCES PAGES 2 2 REMARKS DIFFURD 1. During the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Seviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Ector vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 Earch. (2) 3. Cn 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 26 April 1051 25X1 at Altengrabow (1:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Lotor vehicles of a light artillery unit; prine novers of heavy artillery units: trucks and trucks artillery battalice from Sermburg was at Altengrabow. during the poriod from 23 march. (2) 26. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-cm artillery piaces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA cums, crowered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield chine 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new telephone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern been phone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern constructed and new telephone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern been constructed and new telephone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern	OPIC Sovie	b Artillery Units at Altengrahow	/_
DATE PREPARED 26 April 1951 the poriod from 23 Harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived sengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers ary artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) 25) 26) 27) 28) 29) 21) 25) 26) 27) 28) 29) 29) 21) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 21) 22) 23) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 29) 20) 20) 20) 21) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 28) 29) 29)	DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINET REFERENCES PAGES 2 2 REMARKS DIFFURD 1. During the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Seviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Ector vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 Earch. (2) 3. Cn 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 26 April 1051 25X1 at Altengrabow (1:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Lotor vehicles of a light artillery unit; prine novers of heavy artillery units: trucks and trucks artillery battalice from Sermburg was at Altengrabow. during the poriod from 23 march. (2) 26. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-cm artillery piaces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA cums, crowered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield chine 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new telephone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern been phone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern constructed and new telephone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern been constructed and new telephone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern		Λ_{α}	(DQ
DATE PREPARED 26 April 1951 the poriod from 23 Harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived sengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers ary artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) 25) 26) 27) 28) 29) 21) 25) 26) 27) 28) 29) 29) 21) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 21) 22) 23) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 29) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 26) 27) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 21) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 20) 20) 20) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 29) 29) 20) 20) 20) 21) 21) 22) 23) 24) 25) 26) 27) 28) 28) 28) 28) 29) 29)	DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINET REFERENCES PAGES 2 2 REMARKS DIFFURD 1. During the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Seviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Ector vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 Earch. (2) 3. Cn 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 26 April 1051 25X1 at Altengrabow (1:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Lotor vehicles of a light artillery unit; prine novers of heavy artillery units: trucks and trucks artillery battalice from Sermburg was at Altengrabow. during the poriod from 23 march. (2) 26. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-cm artillery piaces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA cums, crowered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield chine 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new telephone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern been phone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern constructed and new telephone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern been constructed and new telephone polose were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Millersleben via Noeskern	~	DI AOF ADTILLES	25X1
the period from 23 Harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived sengrabow (253/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whiclas with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers was at altengrabow. Jogoo to 70,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow to the forthcoming weeks. (1) willery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA ions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a tarjet considering with the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA ions, and the North Camp two artillery pattalions and a tarjet considering with the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA ions, and the North Camp two artillery pattalions and a tarjet considering the North Camp two artillery places were observed in the prabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery places were observed in the prabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery places were observed in the prabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery places were observed in the prabow. The property of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA mans.	DATE OBTAINED REFERENCES. PAGES 2 2 REMARKS DIFFUNDATE PREPARED 26 April 1951 1. During the period from 23 Harch to 7 April 1951, Seviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Noter vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 Facch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy Al guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	DATE PREPARED 26 Annul 1051 REFERENCES PAGES 2 REMARKS DIFF During the period from 23 Warch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Soviet vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks of a light artillery unit; price nevers and trucks and trucks of seribury was at Altengrabow. [60,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow unit on 23 earch. (2) 3. Cn 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow by rail on 23 earch. (2) 3. Cn 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a tarjet construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-um artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield cince April, Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire: for the units. (4) 5. At the ond of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poloce were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Willersleben via Noeckern	EVALUATION_	PI ACE (TRIAINEI)	ни виделены
the period from 23 Harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived sengrabow (253/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whiclas with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers was at altengrabow. Jo,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow to the forthcoming weeks. (1) willery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA ions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a tarjet considering with the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA ions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a tarjet considering unit and was permanently stationed at reproduce. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the response. Therefore, About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	25X1 1. buring the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Ector vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow operation unit and was peramently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AM guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	25X1 1. During the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Eotor vohicles with each of the eight units included truck of heavy artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks artillery battalion from Sernburg was at Altengrabow. [50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles [1eft Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 3. Cn 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has seen stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fires for the units. (h) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Attengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern	DATE OF CO	TENT	Pro Winted Colymbia
the period from 23 March to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived engrabow (153/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers 25) way artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 360,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) Alternative with vehicles 1 left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target consion unit 1 and was permanently stationed at 25) grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the arm section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA cuns.	25X1 1. During the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (1:53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Ector vehicles with each of the eight units included track of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles 1eft Altengrabow during the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AM. battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and at artjet construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-um artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the Earth Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the Earth Camp.	25X1 1. During the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (2.53/2.00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Noter vehicles with each of the eight units included trunk of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks and trucks and trucks artillers was a Altengrabow. [50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicle left Altengrabow units and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp two artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with terpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire: for the units. (4) 5. At the ond of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were est up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Noeckern	DATE OBTAIN	ED DATE PREPARED 26 April 1951
the period from 23 March to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived engrabow (153/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers 250 eye artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) cillery unit with vehicles 1eft Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) pril, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target consion unit and was permanently stationed at 250 grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA cuns.	1. During the period from 23 March to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (M. 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Motor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prine movers of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow.	1. During the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Ector vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of heavy artillery units; trucks of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bermburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles 1eft Altengrabow duratored five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a ter; et construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit were blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fires for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern	REFERENCES	4
the period from 23 March to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived engrabow (153/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers 250 eye artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) cillery unit with vehicles 1eft Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) pril, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target consion unit and was permanently stationed at 250 grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA cuns.	1. During the period from 23 Harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Noter vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of heavy artillery units; trucks of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. Jone	1. During the period from 23 Earch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived at Altengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Scotor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow.	AGES
the period from 23 harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived tengrabow (N. 53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) cillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 harch. (2) 25) april, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target constion unit and was permanently stationed at grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	at Altengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Motor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow.	at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Notor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 farch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire: for the units. (h) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern	REMARKS		LATANDEN TURK
the period from 23 harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived tengrabow (N. 53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) cillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 harch. (2) 25) pril, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target constion unit and was permanently stationed at grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	at Altengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Motor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow.	at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Notor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 farch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire: for the units. (h) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern		DEEEDE AND THE PROPERTY OF THE
the period from 23 harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived tengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) cillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 25) april, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target consion unit and was permanently stationed at grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	at Altengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Motor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow.	at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Notor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 farch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire: for the units. (h) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern		CILILLE COL CONT.	ng ar ben Marsen Africans and the
the period from 23 harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived tengrabow (153/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) willery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 25% peril, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target constion unit and was permanently stationed at grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	at Altengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Motor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Notor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 farch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire: for the units. (h) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , the period from 23 harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived tengrabow (153/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) willery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 25% peril, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target constion unit and was permanently stationed at grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	at Altengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Motor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Notor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 farch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire: for the units. (h) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern
the period from 23 harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived tengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) cillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 25) april, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target consion unit and was permanently stationed at grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	at Altengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Motor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow.	at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Notor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 farch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire: for the units. (h) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern
the period from 23 harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived tengrabow (N. 53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) cillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 harch. (2) 25) pril, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target constion unit and was permanently stationed at grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	at Altengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Motor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow.	at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Notor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 farch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire: for the units. (h) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern
the period from 23 harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived tengrabow (N. 53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) cillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 harch. (2) 25) pril, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target constion unit and was permanently stationed at grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	at Altengrabow (M 53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Motor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a tarjet construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Notor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 farch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire: for the units. (h) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern
the period from 23 harch to 7 April 1951, Soviet troops arrived tengrabow (N. 53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. whicles with each of the eight units included track of a light artillery unit; prime movers trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) cillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 harch. (2) 25) pril, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target constion unit and was permanently stationed at grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	at Altengrabow (M 53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Motor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a tarjet construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	at Altengrabow (2:53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Notor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 farch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire: for the units. (h) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern rengrabow (1:53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers wy artillery units; trucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 60,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) 1eft Altengrabow by rail on 23 warch. (2) 250 25	at Altengrabow (1 53/2 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Motor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units: trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 warch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	At the grabow (1: 53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. Notor vehicles with each of the eight units included truck of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow.	1.	Furing the period from 23 Parch to 7 April 1951. Soviet troops arrived of a light artillery unit; prime movers avy artillery units; trucks rucks of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) fillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) pril, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA tions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target condition unit and was permanently stationed at trabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the tern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AA guns.	of a light artillery unit; prime movers of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 tarch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	of heavy artillery units; trucks and trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 farch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Neeckern		at Altengrabow (11 53/Z 00) aboard eight trains and started record firing. of artillery units. In addition, an ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow the forthcoming weeks. (1) cillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 25) pril, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA dions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target consion unit and was permanently stationed at grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AA guns.	and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalicn from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles	and trucks and trucks of artillery units. In addition, an artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. [60,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles [1eft Altengrabow by rail on 23 Fach. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target con- struction unit [25] and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit were blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fires for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole- phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Meeckern		of a light artillery unit; prime movers	25)
ery battalien from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow to the forthcoming weeks. (1) 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow to the forthcoming weeks. (1) 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow to the forthcoming weeks. (1) 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow to Altengrabow to Altengrabow to Altengrabow the first Altengrabow by rail on 23 warch. (2) 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow to Altengrabow. The forth Camp to a troops and a target considering the Altengrabow to Altengrabow. (2) 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow to Altengrabow. (2)	artillery battalion from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles 1eft Altengrabow by rail on 23 tarch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	artillery battalich from Bernburg was at Altengrabow. 50,000 to 70,000 troops were expected to come to Altengrabow during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles			207
the forthcoming weeks. (1) illery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) poril, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA ions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a tarjet condion unit and was permanently stationed at grabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 30 medium and heavy AA guns.	during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 tarch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	during the forthcoming weeks. (1) 2. An artillery unit with vehicles left Altengrabow by rail on 23 Warch. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a tarjet construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern	٠	artillery battalica from Bernburg was at Altengrabow.
left Altengrabow by rail on 23 warch. (2) 25) 25) 25) 25) 27) 27) 27) 2	left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a tarjet construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern		during the forthcoming weeks. (1)	25>
left Altengrabow by rail on 23 warch. (2) 25) 25) 25) 25) 27) 27) 27) 2	left Altengrabow by rail on 23 march. (2) 3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	3. On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a tarjet construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern	2.	An artillery unit with vehicles cions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target consion unit and was permanently stationed at 25% crabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at 25% Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a target construction unit and was permanently stationed at Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern		/left Altengrabow by rail on 23 warch. (2)	25>
rabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	and was permanently stationed at 25% Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern	3.	On 7 April, the South Camp of Altengrabow quartered five artillery or AAA
rabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the ern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns.	Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the southern section of the North Camp. About 80 medium and heavy AA guns, covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Billersleben via Moeckern		battalions, and the North Camp two artillery battalions and a tarjet con-	25) in section of the Roth camp. About 50 medium and neavy AA guns,	covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp.	Lowered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North Camp. 4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Billersleben via Moeckern		Altengrabow. Thirty-six 122-mm artillery pieces were observed in the	_0, a with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North	Camp.	4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrahow airfield since 1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrahow to Hillersleben via Moeckern		covered with tarpaulins, were lined up along the western edge of the North
* *		since l April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern		Camp.
with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield	4. A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrahow airfield	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern	1.0	A unit with a captive balloon has been stationed at Altengrabow airfield
1 April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered enaulets. A can-	since I April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered enaulets. A cap-	fire for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole- phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern		since I April. Personnel of this unit wore blue-bordered epaulets. A captive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April. apparently directing artillers.
alloon was seen in the air on 2 April. apparently directing artillome	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillows	phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern		fire: for the units. (4)
alloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery	phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern	5.	At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-
for the units. (4) end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-	and Tura		phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern
	The second secon		5 °	At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole- phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern a revaluant totovicos of orto with MDE Discussion CHURCH CONSTITUTE. A CAU-	parion reserves rerotation or with mile attached and appropriate we can-	5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole- phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern		tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery alloon was seen in the air on 2 April. apparently directing artillome	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillows	phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern		fire: for the units. (4)
alloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery	phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern	5.	At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tola-
for the units. (4) end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-		- '	phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern ealloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery for the units. (4) end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolepoles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole-				_
ealloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery for the units. (4) end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolepoles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern
ealloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery for the units. (4) end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolepoles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern ealloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery for the units. (4) end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolepoles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern		(25X1
ealloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery for the units. (4) end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolepoles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern rg.	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern and Burg.	(25X			1
ealloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery for the units. (4) end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolepoles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern rg.	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern and Burg.	(25X
ealloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery for the units. (4) end of March, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolepoles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern rg.	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern and Burg. (25X1 palloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery for the units. (4) end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolepoles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern rg. 25X1	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tole—phone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern and Burg. (25X1	Document No. 3	7.0
Pocument No	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern and Burg. 25X1	To Document No. 3	T.n	No Change in Story	· .
Pocument No	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern and Burg. 25X1	To Document No. 3	Lo	No Change in Story
Document No	tive balloon was seen in the air on 2 April, apparently directing artillery fire; for the units. (4) 5. At the end of Earch, a heavy field wire line was constructed and new tolephone poles were set up from Camp Altengrabow to Hillersleben via Moeckern and Burg. 25X1	To Document No. 3		No Change in Story	·

25X1

